Please join us for the first training session of 2023. The venue is the beautiful Beverly Hills City Hall, Municipal Gallery, in the City of Beverly Hills. This location was built in 1931 and renovated in 1982 and holds movie credits from “In a Lonely Place” to “Beverly Hills Cop 1-3 and will be seen in Beverly Hills Cop 4 very soon.

This session will include an introduction/training from Evan Hughes of CARFAX whose organization has been of great benefit to auto-theft investigators abroad. The topic will include basic and advanced use of CARFAX for investigators. Investigators are encouraged to bring VIN numbers and/or license plate numbers of vehicles being investigated for a practical application by Mr. Hughes. Boxed lunches will be served after the training. Following the training and lunch, a round table introduction will be conducted with all attendees. Networking with members of the vehicle industry is highly encouraged so bring plenty business cards to pass out. For more information, go to our new website: WSATI.org.

Please RSVP if you are planning to attend so we can plan accordingly.
